

Coventry.

Last Tuesday Miss Theda Metcalf fell and cracked a bone in her arm.

Mrs. L. A. Collins was called to Charleston last Wednesday by the illness of her mother.

G. S. Livingston has greatly improved the appearance of his buildings by a new coat of paint.

H. B. Chamberlin has finished work at the creamery and leaves town today. We are sorry to have Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin leave this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wheelock have returned from Massachusetts, where they have been visiting the past three weeks. — Lee Porter goes to Barton Landing soon to begin work for J. G. Turnbull. — Mrs. W. E. Niles has returned from Boston. Mr. Niles has stopped in Barton. He is much improved in health.

E. H. Boden of Southern California visited Mrs. George Ware Tuesday of last week. They were acquaintances in 1899 and had not met before for many years. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in talking over "the days when they were young." Mr. Boden is still the same active, energetic fellow as of yore and the years have seemed to rest lightly upon his shoulders. He has had much experience which it is pleasant to hear him relate.

East Coventry.

Ira Sessions Sr. and Henry Howard are on the sick list.

Charles Boynton and two sons were at Willoughby last week working on their cottages.

Miss Etta Litchfield is at home on account of typhoid fever breaking out in the school where she was teaching.

Freeman Bean of Glover and J. N. Dunn visited at S. E. Standish's last week. — Owen Robinson visited his daughter, Mrs. A. P. Sessions, last week.

Craftsbury.

Mrs. Robbins has gone to Lyndonville to visit her daughter, Mrs. Cass.

Several from this place went to Hardwick last Tuesday evening to hear the Bell Ringers.

It is reported that Walter Anderson has rented the H. H. Allen farm; possession given in November.

L. F. Smith is improving his premises by raising his barn, adding to the capacity of the basement and making some other improvements.

D. G. Harriman and wife from Barton Landing visited friends in town last week. — Mrs. John Chamberlain and children from New York are visiting friends in town.

Mr. Chas. Ladd and Miss C. Floss Hatch were married Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. Batchelder in Hardwick. We understand they will reside in Hardwick for a time. Congratulations.

Mr. H. Burleson had one arm broken and was quite badly bruised by being thrown from a load of hay last Monday. Dr. Dillingham reduced the fracture and he is doing well. — G. F. Anderson, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is gaining slowly. Tom Johnson, who has been sick for some time with the same disease, is out again.

Amory Davison and Chas. Hatch, who have been away for several days with a drove of cattle, have returned home. — Mr. John Townsend of Johnson is visiting his niece, Mrs. E. N. Nelson and Mrs. Charles Hatch. — Mrs. John Chamberlin, of New York, with three of her children, are visiting friends and relatives here. — David Straus, of New York, was in town one day last week, looking after horses.

James Leavitt is doing quite an extensive job of repairing on the house he recently purchased of the Scott estate. The ground floor will be used as a furniture store and will make very pleasant and convenient rooms. The upper story will be used as a tenement. A new bath room has been added and many other changes and improvements made, making it a place just suited to Mr. Leavitt's business.

— If the parties who are stealing the vases from the graves in the cemetery would let them alone it would be conferring a favor on the people who have friends buried there. — Miss Lucie Thompson is working at Eagle Hotel, and Miss Ruth Morse at Emma Nelson's. — R. A. Patterson has let his lumber job on the Findley lot to Mr. Goodrich. — Craftsbury Grange held its regular meeting Friday evening with a good attendance. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held Friday, Nov. 15. A rubber social will be held and it is hoped every member will be present.

East Craftsbury.

Dan Coburn is working for Ed. Dutton. Corey Urie is building an addition to his barn.

Lindsay Wilson has gone to Worcester, Mass., to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White have returned from their trip to Boston and Nova Scotia.

Archie Macomber and Roscoe McClary have gone to Albany, New York, to attend a business college.

Mrs. Thayer of the town farm met with a serious accident lately which resulted in a broken leg and injured ankle.

Local news intended for our issue of last week, but received too late for publication, may be found on page two of this paper.

Mr. Currier, one of the stone masons working on the Simpson residence, injured his foot badly with a sledge hammer recently.

Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Taylor attended the installation and ordination of Rev. C. W. Kellogg at the U. P. church, Greensboro, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Leona Davis visited her uncle, E. A. Dutton, last week. — M. L. Thompson made a short visit at the home of his father-in-law last week. Mrs. Thompson is able to ride out.

Last Thursday afternoon a fire was noticed in Mr. Edward Dutton's sugar place which burned some fence and ran over the ground among the leaves for some time before it was extinguished.

North Craftsbury.

Local items intended for our issue of last week, but received too late for publication, will be found on page two of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Davis of Portsmouth, N. H., have been visiting at Dr. C. W. Dutton's a few days. — Following the return of Dr. Dutton from Buffalo his son Will joined friends on a trip to Buffalo.

The North Craftsbury item on page two stating that "the daughter of Rev. John Chamberlin of New York were expected as guests at the hotel," should have read: Mrs. John Chamberlin, son and two daughters from New York arrived last week and will remain some days.

Hallowe'en was duly observed by the students of the academy and other young people who held a party at academy hall in the early evening Thursday and later in groups serenaded some of the people of the village and did other things supposed to be appropriate for the occasion.

Derby.

Mrs. Stephen Davis is in quite poor health.

Mr. Henry Colby and wife expect to go soon to Oregon.

Mr. Arnold Edmunds is in a hospital in Boston for treatment.

W. S. Robbins was in St. Albans part of last week on business.

Edgar Silver's family have returned to New York for the winter.

Frank Blay is building a small tenement house for his help to reside in.

Mr. and Mrs. George Twombly have returned from their wedding trip.

E. H. Grow is repairing his house, clapboarding, putting on new jets, etc.

Miss Alice Gibson has been entertaining Miss Robinson of Barnet the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dailey, Mrs. Josiah Grout and Mr. Aaron Grout returned from Buffalo Tuesday.

The Baptist church has extended a call to Rev. F. D. Luddington of New Haven, Conn., which has been accepted.

Mr. Joe Naylor's people lost their youngest boy last week from scarletina and another child is now ill with the disease.

The preachers' meeting held at the M. E. church last week was well attended and every session was interesting and profitable.

Remember the annual fall exhibition at the academy hall Friday evening Nov. 8th. The usual interesting and good time is assured.

Henry Blay has been building an addition to his barn. It is 18x52 feet and has a basement. The upper part will be used for a stable.

The Halloween pranks cut up about the village this year attest the fact that Derby still has some young men who are willing to work hard for a little fun.

B. F. Sawyer has a White Chester hog, which we think is the largest ever seen in the county, weighing nearly 700 lbs. It took the premium at the Newport fair.

Plan to attend the honey supper given by the Congregational ladies to be followed by reading by Prof. Adams at the Rickard parlors Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th.

Geo. C. Kimball has a large collection of old coins of various denomination, many of them representing the money used in foreign countries. One of the latter dates back to 1769; the oldest United States piece dates back to 1795. The whole collection amounts to about $30.

A week ago Saturday night the men of the village and vicinity had quite a lively fight with fire which was discovered about nine o'clock making its way through the dry grass in the direction of C. K. Carpenter's sugar house. After some vigorous stamping and whipping with evergreen branches it was extinguished except in an old hollow tree which had to be chopped down.

Mr. Daggett who has carried on the town farm the past year takes possession of his property recently purchased of N. T. Blake this week. He is succeeded by Antoine Busky on the farm. — Mr. David Moody has sold his farm to Mr. Labounty of Norton and has bought the Luther Armstrong place on the Charleston road. — Mr. Jason Wilson has sold his farm to a party from Ayers Flats, Canada, and he has hired the Willey place of Henry Colby. — Charles Young of Salem Derby has sold his farm and moved into the village, having rented Mrs. Arthur Sawyer's place.

West Derby.

Mrs. James Richardson is visiting in Troy.

Mrs. Mary Bickford of Barton is visiting at E. A. Richardson's.

Z. C. Blake has lately sold to H. A. Perkins & Co. of White River Junction, beef hides to the amount of $3250.00.

Mrs. Bailey has moved to Newark to the MacQueen farm.

Miss Addie Blake and Mr. John Hildreth were married at the F. B. parsonage, Wednesday, Oct. 30th by Rev. E. E. Phillips.

Miss Viola Cobb is in very poor health. She has let her place to Alvah Merrill and is now stopping with Mrs. Hadley on River St.

Rev. E. E. Phillips will lecture on Egypt, its people, pyramids, temples, and monoliths, in the F. B. church to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, illustrating the lecture with a fine stereopticon. In addition to his regular set of views, Mr. Phillips will exhibit 26 others bearing upon the present quarter of the International Sunday-school lessons.

Derby Line and vicinity.

Mrs. M. M. Haskell has returned from Boston.

Mrs. D. I. Pulsifer has closed her house and will spend the winter in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Howard Hall and daughter of Rockford, Ill., are visiting Mrs. C. E. Nelson.

Richard Miller, engineer on the spur, has rented a house on Railroad Street and moved his family here.

Mr. Andrew T. Chapin and family have gone to Springfield, Mass., to reside. Mr. Chapin has been connected with the whip manufactory for a number of years, and the family will be greatly missed in this section.

Beebe Plain.

Mr. J. G. Elder has returned from Boston.

E. G. Bodwell was in New York last week on a business trip.

Mrs. Wm. Stratton, who has been ill of late, is now improving.

Mrs. Welcome of New York has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Lewis Blake.

H. B. Stewart has been spending a few days in Maine on a hunting expedition.

Glover.

What ailed that ails?

S. N. Clark is in poor health.

Mrs. Ann Mitchell is gaining.

Edwin Williams is at home from Hudson, N. Y.

Ben Wilson is gathering cream for Asa Chamberlin.

Mrs. Amos Hopkins of Hardwick is visiting in town.

R. E. French is closing out his entire stock of goods.

Walter Simpson shot a nice deer in Sheffield last week.

Mrs. Dick Sargent and child visited in town last week.

Frank Walcott is out on bail and has hired out to N. M. Lewis.

E. A. Norton has been building a small barn on his home place.

Mrs. J. F. Taylor is visiting friends in Hardwick and St. Johnsbury.

Dr. N. L. Dow leaves next Thursday for Boston, where he will remain for two or three weeks.

Mrs. L. A. Pratt came from Lyndonville to attend the funeral of Dyer Skinner at Barton last Friday.

Harrison Wilson has been making considerable repairs on the Darling house and has moved into it.

Miss Greta Gray has been spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Chamberlain.

Remember W. N. Aldrich's sale of horses, cattle and hay at the Fuller farm on Sheffield Square next Saturday afternoon.

A. C. Clark has finished work for R. E. French and moved to Newport Centre where he will work for Fred Taylor. A. E. Anderson takes his place in the store.

At the hearing of the case between Mrs. Walcott and Mrs. Clark last Wednesday judgment was given against Mrs. Clark and she was placed under $500 bonds for appearance at County Court.

Glover of late has been having rather an unpleasant notoriety. We hope, however, that it is only a passing wave and will soon settle down to its usual peaceful quiet. The many ought not to be judged by the few.

Glover Grange, No. 272 will give a reception at the Institute Hall, Nov. 12th at 8 p. m. under the management of Prof. P. G. Stone. The program consists of music, reading and discussion. All cordially invited.

Mrs. Reuben Cheney, who has been so ill in her summer home at Willoughby has returned to her home in Manchester, N. H. She stood the journey better than was expected and seems to be gaining slowly since her return.

The pupils of the primary department of the village school will give an exhibition at Institute Hall on Thursday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock. An admission of 5 cents will be charged, the proceeds to be used for school expenses.

The Glover band give a poverty promenade and dance at Institute Hall on Friday evening of this week. Prizes will be awarded to the gentleman and lady who wear the most poverty stricken costumes. An oyster supper will be served.

At a dance held at John Smith's last week the supply of liquid refreshment was so great as to be overpowering. One of the party amused himself by breaking out windows and was arrested next day and fined $15 and costs amounting to something over $5.00.

A look around Chester Phillips shop shows bear heads, deer heads, and moose heads in daily increasing quantities. They come from every New England State and many adjoining states, showing that Mr. Phillips' skill as a taxidermist has gone abroad. He and his assistant, Mr. Royston, are hard at work and turning out some excellent subjects.

Geo. Anderson has removed the old barns on his place and graded the ground around the new one, making a great improvement on his premises. — Charles Lawrence has laid out his grounds in a very pleasing manner, leveling and seeding them, making the finest lawn to be found in this section.

Leon Collins has rented Frank Day's farm for five years and has taken possession. — Ed. Walker has moved from the Chamberlain house into the Taylor house in the village. Mr. Chamberlain will move from his farm to his house on the river road. — Mr. Cameron has taken possession of the house he has hired of Mrs. Betsey Drew and will drive the stage. — Albert F. Hinckley has moved to his farm purchased of Mrs. Hastings sometime ago.

West Glover.

Mrs. Geo. Dow is at Concord, N. H.

Herman Prescott has been ill with the grip.

Dick Wilkinson took a trip to Wolcott last week.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dana Sisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cook have returned from their Pan-American trip.

Mrs. Slack and three children of Norwich have been visiting Mrs. Slack's sister, Mrs. Jondson Stevens.

Mr. Miles, who recently lost his buildings by fire, has sold his farm to Fred Chase and David Jerome. Mr. Chase takes the timbered land.

Mr. Leslie Lawrence and his mother, Mrs. Sarah Dudley, from St. Johnsbury recently visited at Ora Calderwood's. — Miss Maude Holmes has been in town visiting her uncle E. C. Miles, and at H. N. Paquette's. — Mrs. Gertrude Coach of Manchester, N. H., visited Mrs. L. L. Hastings last week. — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gray and two daughters of St. Johnsbury have been visiting friends in town.

Greensboro.

There was a party at C. A. Goodrich's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Smith of Crafts-bury visited at J. B. Cook's Thursday.

Several from this place went to Hardwick Tuesday evening to hear the Bell Ringers.

Erwin Olmstead starts this morning for Denver, Col., where he intends to clerk in a drug store.

Miss Rena Goodrich has finished work for Mrs. M. C. Ingalls, where she has been employed for four years.

The Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. M. C. Ingalls. About twenty-five were present.

Will S. Jackson starts this morning for Waltham, Mass., where he will enter the Horological School for a year's study.

Local items intended for our issue of Oct. 28th, but received too late for publication, will be found on page two of this paper.

Remember the auction sale of personal property, etc., at the residence of Chas. F. Thompson, Wednesday, Oct. 13th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Miss Mary Miller is at home after an absence of several months in Barnet. — Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goss have returned from their visit in St. Johnsbury.

Rev. P. B. Fisk and family will move soon to St. Johnsbury Center, where he has purchased a home. They will be much missed by their many friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettie have returned to Alden Perrin's, after spending the summer with their daughter in Williston. — Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and her daughter intend to close their house and spend a part of the winter in Hardwick with Mrs. Goodrich's son.

Bert Cook was in Barton Tuesday on town business. — L. A. Jackson and F. H. Babbitt visited in St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

— Amy Forbes is stopping at Henry Miller's. — Mary Miller is home from Barnet where she has spent the summer working in a hotel. — James Black has just completed a large new hen-house. — Geo. Allen is building a new sugar house. — Mrs. A. E. Jackson and son returned last week from a week's visit with Mr. Jackson's parents in Walden. — Many Greensboro people are preparing to hear Russell H. Conwell lecture at Hardwick Nov. 12th. — Mrs. Goodrich and daughter Rena expect to go to Hardwick this week to live through the winter. — Rev. P. B. Fisk preached his farewell sermon Oct. 27th and will move to St. Johnsbury Center Nov. 15th where he has purchased a small place. — The social at C. A. Goodrich's Friday night drew a large crowd and a general good time was enjoyed by all present.

Lowell.

George Curtis is in Boston this week.

W. A. Blake and wife have gone to Barton Landing for the winter.

Archibald Harding of Montgomery has been visiting his parents the past week.

A large bear and two cubs were seen near Richmond Powers' last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Giddings and children of Essex visited at Wm. Weed's last week.

Mrs. James Cameron and Miss Cameron of Glover visited friends here the last of the week.

Ernest Beart has given up his hotel work at Eden and has gone to work here for Geo. Curtis.

The infant child of Israel Pudvah died Thursday and the funeral was held at the R. C. church Saturday.

Miss Nellie Harding has returned from her visit to Massachusetts. She was absent about seven weeks.

Dr. Hill is having his dwelling covered with iron roofing. Edson Kinney and T. N. Patterson are doing the work.

M. L. Tillotson has his new boiler and engine nearly ready for business this winter. He will put in a large stock of logs.

CONTINUED ON EIGHTH PAGE.

MARRIED.

In East Burke, Oct. 28, at the Methodist parsonage, by Rev. A. Gregory, Dana J. Sisco of Barton, and Carrie B. Walter of Newark.

In West Derby, Oct. 30, at the F. B. parsonage, by Rev. E. E. Phillips, John Hildreth and Miss Addie Blake, both of West Derby.

Barton Market Report.

Corrected to date of this paper.

The prices at Barton Landing will be found to be nearly the same as those given below.

BUYING.
Butter, per lb.,	.18 to .20
Eggs, per doz.,	.20 to .22
Potatoes, per bu.,	.50
Chickens, per lb.,	.12
Beef, per lb.,	.04 to .05
Fresh Pork, per lb., dressed,	.08 to .10
Salt Pork, per lb.,	.12
Beans, per bu.,	$2.25
Lard, per lb.,	.10 to .12
Veal, per lb.,	.04
Hay, per ton, pressed,	$11.75
Hay, per ton, bulk,	$9.00
Hogs per lb., live weight,	.05
SELLING.
Beans, per bu.,	$2.50
Hams, per lb.,	.13 to .15
Shorts, per cwt.,	$1.05 to $1.10
Brain, per cwt.,	$1.00 to $1.05
Corn Meal, per cwt.,	$1.30
Corn, per bu.,	.70
Gluten, per cwt.,	$1.15
Cotton Seed Meal, prime, per cwt.,	$1.50
Bread Flour, per bbl.,	$4.75
Winter Wheat Flour, per bbl.,	$4.25 to $4.50
Onions, per bu.,	$1.20
Sugar, Granulated, per lb.,	.05 to .06
Beef Steak, per lb.,	.12 to .14
Potatoes, per bu.,	.50
Oats, per bu.,	.50

Young Men and Women are wanted at the

Albany Business College
AND SCHOOL OF
SHORTHAND & TELEGRAPHY.
To learn Bookkeeping and Shorthand in preparation for good positions, which may be secured by them. Sessions during entire year. For catalogue address
CARNELL & HOYT, Albany, N. Y.

The Test of a Knife - -

from our stock, made in any ordinary manner, will convince anyone that quality is all right. The test which will prove satisfactory will be that of actual use.

OUR CUTLERY

can be handed down from one generation to another. Its good points are not impaired by years of hard work. And another attractive feature is the low price at which we sell. These prices don't tell enough of value.

OUR AXES are attracting a great deal of attention this Fall. We have all sizes and shapes and they are fully warranted. HERE IS A LIST OF GOODS that we can please you on. X-cut Saws, Chains, Cow Ties, Window Glass, Wash Tabs, Wringers, Scales, Storm Window Fasteners, Etc. GREAT TRADE IN BROOMS for a few days. Fifty of the best FOOD CHOPPERS ever made for $1.25.

H. T. SEAVER,
BARTON, VT.

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES
EXACTLY AS REPRESENTED for EXACTING BUYERS.

Because

we advertise cheap prices you must not gain the impression that we are stinting you on values.

When You

buy from us you get just what you pay for, and you'll come back to buy more. Try it on our Kerosene Oil at 12 cents per gallon and be convinced.

CRYSTAL LAKE GROCERY,

V. F. HUNTER, Proprietor,

BARTON,

VERMONT.

Up-to-date.

Something
Worth Investigating.

You can find as nice a line of

FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES

at Scott's, in Barton, as in any store in Northern Vermont. We have the best, and sell at the very lowest, living prices. "Quick Sales and Small Profits" is our Motto. Won't say anything about how honest we are—will let you find that out. Come and see us, we will use you right.

Will pay 23 cents cash, for fresh Eggs.

N. M. SCOTT.

Barton, Vt., Nov. 4, 1901.

$ YOUR CLOTHING DOLLARS $

Will go farther at our store than at any other, and will give you better returns on the investment. A look at our goods will show you that this is the place to buy your clothing this season. We mention just a few of the many good things we are selling.

North Star Fur Coats.

The fur coat par excellence. Every garment warranted.

Top Coats and Ulsters.

All the new styles in overcoats and ulsters. We have the yoke coats which are so popular this year. A fine line of Raglans, Rain Coats and Reefers for men, youths and boys.

Suits.

Our stock of suits was never so large as this season. If you need a new suit you should see our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Underwear and Hosiery.

Underwear and hosiery in great variety. All sizes and in a wide range of prices.

Gloves and Mittens.

Heavy mocha gloves and mittens, pontiac mittens, etc. A good work glove for a little money.